解答

1

I like studying English. First, English helps me communicate with people from other countries, which is very useful in today's global society. Second, it gives me more opportunities in the future, such as studying abroad or getting a better job. For these reasons, I enjoy learning English.

2

I think students should not use smartphones at school. First, they may become distracted during class and cannot focus on their studies. Second, they might rely too much on smartphones instead of thinking by themselves. For example, they may search answers online. Therefore, smartphones should be restricted.

3

I think it is important to have a hobby. First, hobbies help us relax and reduce stress in our daily lives. Second, they make our lives more enjoyable and meaningful. For example, people can feel refreshed after doing what they like. For these reasons, having a hobby is important.

4

I prefer studying alone. First, I can concentrate better without distractions from other people around me, which helps me focus deeply on my work. Second, I can study at my own pace and spend more time on difficult topics. For example, I can review grammar points carefully. Therefore, studying alone is more effective for me.

5

I think students should wear school uniforms. First, uniforms reduce differences between students and create a stronger sense of equality at school. Second, they help students focus on their studies instead of their clothes or fashion. For example, students do not need to spend time choosing what to wear every morning. Therefore, uniforms are useful.

6

I think the best way to learn English is to practice it every day. First, using English regularly helps us remember words and grammar more effectively. Second, speaking with others improves our communication skills. For example, we can talk with friends or teachers and use simple English in daily conversations. For these reasons, daily practice is the most effective way.

7

People travel abroad for several reasons. First, they want to experience different cultures and ways of life in other countries. Second, they can relax and enjoy new places that they have never visited before. For example, they can try foreign food and meet new people during their trips. These experiences help them understand the world better and broaden their views.

8

We can do many things to protect the environment. First, we should reduce waste by recycling and reusing materials whenever possible. Second, we can save energy by turning off lights and using less electricity at home. For example, using reusable bags instead of plastic ones is very helpful. If everyone takes small actions, we can make a big difference in protecting our environment.

9

Reading is very important for everyone. First, it helps us gain knowledge about many different topics and subjects. Second, it improves our language skills, such as vocabulary and grammar. For example, we can learn new words and useful expressions through books. Reading also helps us think more deeply about things. Therefore, reading is a very meaningful and valuable activity.

10

A good teacher has several important qualities. First, they explain things clearly so that students can understand the lessons easily. Second, they support students when they have problems and encourage them to keep trying. For example, a good teacher listens carefully to students and gives helpful advice. These qualities help students feel confident and motivated to learn.
